Political Attrition.

Some of the excellent fellows who are running for the office of County Attorney have awakened to the fact that "yours truly" had a sufficient number of good citizens for me to make the outlook doubtful for them, promptly set to work to counteract the growth of the sentiment for me, head was visited by a disastrous in West Liberty, Saturday July and, being good fellows, have evidently by some peculiar fire early Saturday morning the feat of telepathy, all adopted the method of attrition.

A CARD.

At a meeting of the pastors of the various churches of West Liberty it was unanimously agreed that we could do no less than to say that we must withhold our support from any candidate, for any office, whom we know to use money or liquor or other corrupt method to secure his nomination. However, this does not indicate that we espouse the cause of any particular candidate.

A Letter Explained.

I understand it is being reported over the county by George W. Stacy that he is in posession of a letter written by me that Farish Hamilton is not in the race with Joe Roe Wells for Jailer. I did write Mr. Stacy a letter sometime in last May in regard to a proposition that he (Mr. Stacy) had made to Farish Hamilton through me in regard to Hamilton accepting a place in the Jailer's race under him, and said in that letter that Farish Hamilton would not accept the place and did not think he would have anything to do with the Jailer's race. After that Farish Hamilton accepted a place with Joe Roe Wells and is now a candidate.

This is the only letter I ever have written Mr. Stacy and anything reported to the contrary is false and untrue.

Now I wish to say with due courtesy to all the candidates for Jailer, I will support Mr. Wells. Respectfully,

S. D. HAMILTON July 9, 1917.

J. L. Fugate for Magistrate.

In this issue of the Courier appears the formal announcement of John L. Fugate for the Democratic nomination for Justice of the Peace for Magisterial district No. 3. Mr. Fugate is not without experience as a Justice of the Peace, having served one term in that important office several years ago. He is a sober. lawabiding man, and one who believes that laws were made to be obeyed, and if elected will see to it that the laws are enforced so far as it lies within his power to enforce them.

Mr. Fugate is a popular farmer, well versed in current affairs, progressive in his ideas and acquainted with the needs of the people. Consider his candidacy carefully before casting your vote.

I desire to take this opportunity of saying to the voters of this county and to those interested that it has been falsely rumored that I am a candidate for deputy Jailer under Mr. Dyer, and I want to say that such is not the truth and that I am not such a candidate and never have been, and don't expect to be. This is the true state of the case and I hope those interested will so con-

Hero of Ticonderoga

The bloody encounter at Lexington in 1775 fired the blood of the patriots with burning de-reached Col. Ethan Allen to raise the Green Mountail boys and if possible surprise and take the fortress of Ticonderoga. Eager for such rallied 230 of the valiant mountain boys and on the ninth day of May, 1775, succeeded in getting a few boats and transported 83 men across the lake, and sent the boats back for the rest of the men. But day now began to dawn and Colonel Allen realized that if the attempt against the fort were to succeed he and his daring expedition must act at once.

Nothing daunted by the fact that their force was so few, and making up in patriotic devotion what they lacked in numbers, Colonel Allen called for volunteers for the perilous venture. "I do not urge any to enter on this enterprise contrary to his will, inasmuch as it is a desperate attempt, which none but the bravest of men dare undertake," cried Colonel Al-"You that will undertake voluntarily, poise your firelock." Every man poised his firelock. He immediately formed them into line and at their head advanced on the gate of the fortress. The sentry snapped his fuse at the colonel and then retreated to the parade within the garrison. Allen and his men 349 quickly followed and formed in the parade. The garrison was asleep-all but the sentries who did not fully sense what was transpiring. Allen and his men gave three huzzas, and one of the sentries made a pass at one of the men with a charged bayonet and slightly wounded him.

Allen was about to run him through with his sword but thought better of It and only slightly wounded him on the head whereon he dropped his gun and begged for quarter. This granted he showed Colonel Allen the officers' quarters whither the intrepid commander rushed and compelled the commander, Captain Delaplace, to come forth and deliver over the entire garrison on threat of putting the entire force to the sword. "By what authority?"

Captain Delaplace. "In the name of the Great Jehovah and the Continental Congress," thunover Delaplace's head. In the mean tme the Green Mountain boys had not been idle but had beaten down the barracks' doors and had about a third of the garrison prisoners. With stuttered expostulation the commander forthwith submitted and the fort was completely in the hands of Colonel Allen, who in his own account of the exploit says:

"The sun seemed to rise that morning with a superior luster, and Ticonderoga and its dependencies smiled on its conquerors."

It is related that a private in the army of the Potomac was sentenced to be shot for sleeping at President Lincoln out a reprieve he riage and started out to see that the reprieve did not fail to reach the poor condemned soldier. It was a broiling hot day and the ride to camp was a long one of ten miles, but the great-hearted Lincoln was bent on saving the poor soldier and he went forward. Perhaps the president later forof state, but not so the soldier. When rifle pits before Yorktown the following year the enemy poured a volley upon them. The first man to fall was William Scott of Company K, with six bullets through his body. His comhis life blood ebbed away, he raised to heaven amid the din of battle, the cries of the dying and the shouts of the enemy, a prayer for the president, and as he died he remarked to his comrades that Lincoln had showed he was no coward and was not afraid to die. At the burial later the chaplain narrated the circumstances to the boys who stood about with uncovered heads. He had prayed for the president and paid him a most fervid and glowing tribute with his dying breath. One country, one constitution, one

Have You Seen the Fifth Wheel? This Is a Strong, New, Weber Wagon Feature

YOU can find the new fifth wheel, the big 1914 improvement, only on International wagons. We can demonstrate how the Weber fifth wheel makes the best wagon still better.

best wagon still better.

The famous fifth wheel on the Weber, made of strong, malleable iron, with large wearing surface, does these things: It distributes the strain on the front bolster and sandboard; overcomes pitching of bolster, so preventing bending or breaking of the king bolt; does away with pulling up of front bolster and bending of circle iron.

The top plates of the fifth wheel are widest, so the lower plates are protected and no dirt gets in between. The more you study the merits of this feature, the more you will appreciate its importance.

CTING

HOVERMALE

To Elect a Man that You Know will Give You Results for your County?

Vote for the Good of your County by voting for a man who has proven himself an efficient County Attorney.

Would you hire a man to do a job of work for you whose ability and fitness for the job was not known to you, and when you could get a man that you were certain knew how?

Then, will you give less consideration to the welfare of your county, and elect an untried man of whose ability and willingness to make a good County Attorney you do not know, when a man who has the experience and a good record for faithful, tax-saving, law-enforcing service can be had?

Would that be good public business?

L. T. Hovermale County Attorney

And you will get

Progressive, businesslike service Sensible county management Strict enforcement of the law

And full information as to how your tax money is expended; how much the county owes and what it is for, and 313 days' service.

Two Schemes Ventilated

Whitt Exposes Attempt to Deceive

It is not my intention to carry on a mud-slinging campaign through the columns of the paper, yet there are a few things I think the public should know.

First, you notice that Mr. Davis claims eighty of the ninty teachers endorse him and have solicited him to make the race. Now, the teachers know that Mr. Davis wrote those letters himself and asked the teachers to sign them. Mr. Davis had paid the teachers their money, as was his duty, and as a matter of courtesy nearly all the teachers signed his paper or probably neglected it. He took advantage of the teachers and tried to obligate the brightest minds of the county and use them as a campaign scheme. As you see he fails to give their names because he knows that those eighty teachers are not going to support him. Second, some of his supporters try to intimate that I have not always been a Democrat. They do this possibly because my father is a Republican.

This is not an unusual thing. One of our present county officers, and a good Democrat, is the son of a Republican. This is a free country and I chose to be a Democrat. My mother's people are strong Democrats. My grandfather, Maj. Billy Mynheir, was a soldier in the Rebel army, and you see I am a natural born Dem-
